

Major Taylor Houston Cycling Club Code of Civility

- Treat each other and the community with courtesy, honesty, and respect at all times.
- Take responsibility for my verbal, written, and physical actions.
- Publicly promote positive actions. Privately, one-on-one with member, discuss adverse, redirective actions.
- Cooperate with members to ensure the success of the club.

What happens when a member does not comply? The Executive Team will follow these steps in order unless the member's actions call for an acceleration of redirection.

1. Warning - electronic communication
2. Verbal warning/meeting with member
3. Revocation of access to MTHCC platforms
4. Removal from Club
